News

Clarence said he currently has 94 sets of earrings and relief carvings on display at the Round Rock Library. They will remain on display for the rest of the month.

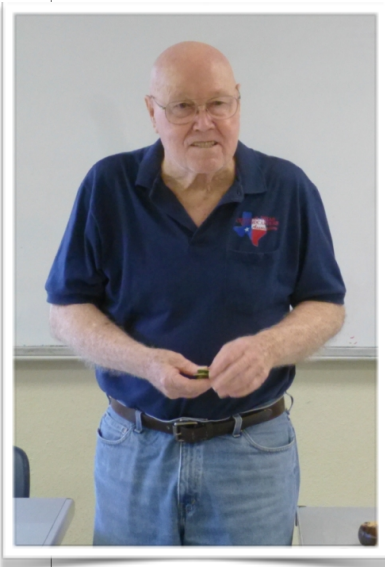

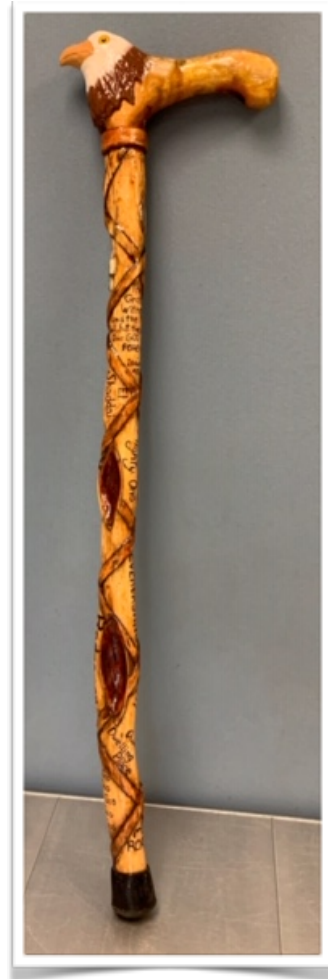

Woody is down-sizing her wood pieces and blanks. She will be bringing blanks and various pieces of wood for sale at the next several meetings.

Show & Tell:

Jerry had a cane with an eagle head on top which she carved for a friend years ago. She was trying to repair the handle with epoxy.

Clarence had a collection of hearts, hummingbirds, and crosses made for hanging around the neck.

Howard had a long cane with an eagle on top, an American flag under that, then a cross and the handle was wrapped all the way down.

Next meeting will be Thursday,
August 8, 2019, 7:00 PM,
at the Hancock Center in Austin.

The 2020 Houston Woodworking Show is presented by woodworkers, for woodworkers. This is an effort by local woodworkers to insure that the Houston woodworking community has an opportunity to see, use, learn about, and purchase the latest in tools, supplies, and equipment. Come and join us May 1-3, 2020

We will have events and activities for all attendees - from participating in a drilling contest to voting on the "Best of Show" for entries from local woodworkers. We will also have on display the entries from the 2 X 4 contest.

REMEMBER - DOOR PRIZES THROUGHOUT

THE 2020 SHOW WILL FEATURE ALL OF THE LATEST TOOLS AND SUPPLIES THAT OUR LOCAL WOODWORKERS NEED TO SUPPORT THEIR EFFORTS. ADDITIONALLY, THERE WILL BE A SERIES OF SEMINARS THAT WILL HIGHLIGHT SPECIFIC TOOLS AND TECHNIQUES THAT WE ALL CAN USE.

SOMETHING DIFFERENT ABOUT THIS SHOW - WE WILL HAVE BOOTHS OF LOCAL CRAFTSMEN/WOMEN SELLING THEIR PRODUCTS -
