May's Show & Tell Table

A Word from the Editor

by David Loeffler

This is my fifth issue of the newsletter. Bob Reese is starting a monthly column, Reese's Pieces. I would like to thank John Thompson for the notes from the May meeting and Jo Comer for her photo of the show and tell table. I am trying something new this time, pictures of the authors (also taken by Jo). Let me know if you like it. Bob Allen has some blanks for sale. See his ad on page 3. This month I am including the Librarian's and Treasurer's reports that I did not have room for last month. Jake Heugel did a quick change of blanks for next month to help out with a charity show to benefit the Gillespie County Historical Society (see John's report on page 3).

If you have an article or photo to contribute please send them to me. Anything that comes by the end of the month should make it into the newsletter in time for the next meeting. If you have hints to share, woodcarving events, sources for wood or tools, etc., please send it my way.

The electronic color version of this newsletter is available at:

<http://www.onr.com/ctwa/newsletters>

The electronic version requires Adobe's Acrobat Reader (which is free). If you don't have Acrobat Reader there is a link on my web page to get it.

This newsletter is done in AppleWorks and then converted to Adobe PDF format for printing and the electronic version.

Directory Pictures

Look on the club website <http://www.onr.com/ctwa> for pictures of members. This is the start of our new membership directory with photos. This is the last month for getting retakes. See Jo Comer if your picture has not been taken yet. If you would like to submit your own photo we'll find someone to scan it.

Librarian's Report

by David Hickey

For those who did not know that the club has a library, we do! We are fortunate to be able to keep our collection in the cabinet in our meeting room and members can check out titles during the monthly meetings. We have a nice collection of Chip Chats magazines as well as a variety of other publications.

The CTWA library has grown again thanks to the generosity of R. T. (Bob) Allen. Bob donated a bag of books to the library. These books were delivered at the April meeting by Gary Roberts. They are:

- ◊ North American Bird Life - This book has many drawings of various birds
- ◊ Birds - Drawings of different birds
- ◊ Exploring Earth - Birds - Drawings of birds along with information on birds
- ◊ Bird Stamps - Both drawings of the bird stamps and the stamps
- ◊ Fifty Birds of Town and City - Bird drawings and narratives about birds
- ◊ Carving Realistic Birds by H. D. Green - instructions on carving birds
- ◊ Floral Wood Carving - Mack Sutter - Both patterns and instructions
- ◊ Manual of Traditional Wood Carving by Paul N. Hasluck - history of wood carving, wood carving tools, methods and even some patterns.

Thanks again to Bob for his generous donation of these titles to the club library. [Editor's Note: Bob has blanks for sale in this issue.]

REESE's PIECES for the NOVICE

By Bob Reese

After you have completed the painting of your cowboy or animal carving, paint the eyes, buttons, teeth, claws and noses of animals with Acrylic High Shine varnish. This makes the carving stand out and makes it look more professional. I usually put at least two coats on.

The national wood carving magazine it is $14/year. Subscription information is at <http://www.chipchats.org>.

Treasurer's Report

by Gail Lynn

Membership is $12 per year. Send dues to Gail Lynn at 11906 Rickem Cove, Austin, TX 78758 (gaillynn@austin.rr.com).

Secretary's Notes

by John Thompson
May 14, 2002 Meeting

The meeting was opened by Jim Roby at 7:00 pm. There were three visitors present, Diane Dwyer, Christina Martinez, and Michael Myszka. We hope they enjoyed the meeting and carving and will join us on a permanent basis.

Jim read a very nice article from the Fredericksburg newspaper about the recent woodcarving show. It is a great location for the Guild shows and we hope it remains there for a long time.

Rita Ryser talked about the Fall Guild show and said that it will be a charity show to benefit the Gillespie County Historical Society. Club members were asked to make Christmas ornaments for a tree to be on display at the show. Ornaments can be of your choosing and as many as you would like to make. They need to be completed and given to Rita no later than the end of July. Diane Small suggested that instead of Jake Heugel bringing the blank of the month to our next meeting, that everyone bring their ornament and we could carve them for display.

Our treasurer Gail Lynn reported that the club has $1,600 in the bank. She also asked if the club had a practice of sending flowers for club members or their family members who had passed away. Jim Roby suggested that we have a kitty that anyone could donate to that could be used for this purpose. It was also suggested that we increase the price of the blank of the month to $2.00 and use that for a flower fund.

David Hickey, our librarian, mentioned that Bob Allen had donated several books on carving to the library and that the fee for taking out books was $1.00 and for tapes was $2.00.

Tom Sarff said that there were three boxes of blanks and patterns from Sue Williamson for sale and the proceeds would go to the club.

Show and Tell

Carl Schorlemmer had a hummingbird and flower carving done in basswood.

Jake Heugel brought a bear painted in Sue Williamson's painting class, a Hill Billy, a wood burned box from a Shirley Bandor class, a snake and other miniatures, and several small people from a Jack Price class.

Buddy Streetman had a shark done in butternut from a Johnny Stevens class.

Jim Brinkman had a whale in butternut from the same class.

Bob Reese brought a cowboy he carved with Gerald Sears and a fisherman he did in a Phil Bishop class. He also had a clown he carved with Dallas Deege.

Tom Farr had a necklace and elephant pieces from Africa as well as some of his cottonwood bark carvings.

Jim Roby had a horse he carved from catalpa wood.

Tom Sarff brought an Indian bust he carved in a Ronnie Reed class.

Diane Small had a Christmas ornaments carved by Tom.

Special Announcements

I made an announcement about the upcoming class with Phil and Vicki Bishop that will be held at the end of August. It is a three day class and will cost $125 plus the blank. The last half of the third day will be painting and all painting supplies will be furnished. Five club members have signed up for the class as well as two people from out of town. A minimum of twelve people are required for the class. Please e-mail me at john.thompson@tcb.aecom.com or call me at 989-1445 if you are interested. If we don't get twelve we will have to cancel the class.

Vesterheim Norwegian-American Museum

With 16 historic buildings in its main complex, which occupies most of a square block in downtown Decorah, and two National Register historic sites — a farmstead and country church — just outside the city, Vesterheim is the largest, most comprehensive museum in the United States dedicated to a single immigrant group. Though Norwegian-American, Vesterheim reflects the story of an entire immigrant nation pioneering its future. The museum houses over 21,000 artifacts, including large samplings from the fine, decorative, and folk arts, and the tools and machinery of early agriculture, lumbering, and other immigrant industries.

They have carving and knife making classes too! See classes at: <http://www.vesterheim.org/Education/edfp.htm>

Next Meeting is Tuesday, June 14, 7:00PM at St. Barnabas Church.

Doors open at 6:30. If you need directions call one of the officers.
